We want to thank the public in general for their liberal patronage given us during our big sale. As soon as the public learned of our sale, our store was crowded from the time opened until closed. Now we have gotten extra help to take care of the rush and we want to make February a record breaking month. Now I am sure that the people of Dillon County will help us make February a record breaking month.

Thanking you again for the liberal patronage, we beg to remain yours for bargains,

I. BLUM CO.
